Re: Freedom of Information Act Records Request

Dear Ms. Snowden:

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), 5 U.S.C. § 552 et seq., and the Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD") FOIA Regulations at 24 C.F.R. Part 15, Democracy Forward Foundation makes the following request for records.

I. Background

On July 2, 2019 the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)'s Office of Special Needs Assistance Programs (SNAPS), in conjunction with the U.S. Department of Justice's Office for Victims of Crimes (OVC), announced a Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA) worth up to $14.5 million titled "Specialized Housing and Services for Victims of Human Trafficking Announcement" (CFDA Number 14.279).

The grant opportunity described the purpose of the NOFA: "SNAPS and OVC are promoting collaboration between Continuums of Care (CoCs) funded by HUD and organizations funded by DOJ to address the housing and service needs of victims of human trafficking. This NOFA promotes trauma-informed, victim-centered services, including in tribal areas. Organizations awarded funds through this NOFA are expected to work with other organizations within the CoC's geographic area to train service providers on how to identify victims of human trafficking and connect these victims to appropriate housing. SNAPS and OVC plan to identify best practices for addressing this population that may assist in framing future funding opportunities for victims of human trafficking." This grant competition had two deadlines, August 30, 2019 and October 30, 2019.

On August 22, 2019 the United States Interagency Council on Homelessness (USICH) hosted a webinar for potential applicants. On September 4, 2019 HUD posted on its website an "Updates FY 2019 Specialized Housing and Services for Victims of Human Trafficking NOFA to Include Non-citizens" which stated “HUD has added minor and adult foreign national victims to Section III.F.1.g of the FY 2019 Specialized Housing and Services for Victims of Human Trafficking Notice of Funding Availability to allow recipients to serve non-citizens under this program.” Subsequently, on September 9, 2019, after the first deadline for applicants and with no public explanation, HUD cancelled the NOFA.

II. Records Requested

In an effort to understand and explain to the public the reason for the sudden, unexplained cancellation of the NOFA, Democracy Forward requests that HUD produce the following within twenty (20) business days:

1. Any records, including interagency communications and communications with third-parties, discussing or addressing modification, postponement, or cancellation of the NOFA (FY 2019 Specialized Housing and Services for Victims of Human Trafficking Notice of Funding Availability).
2. Any records, including interagency communications and communications with third-parties, discussing the NOFA which contain the words “non-citizens,” “foreign national(s),” “minor and adult foreign national victims,” “immigrants,” “aliens,” or “illegals,” or any variants thereof.
3. Any records, including interagency communications and communications with third-parties, discussing the addition of minor and adult foreign national victims as eligible participants, as published on September 4, 2019.

Please search for records responsive to this request created between July 2, 2019 and the date on which HUD completes its search for responsive documents.

Please search for records within the following HUD offices and personnel: Office of the Secretary (including Secretary Ben Carson), Chief of Staff, Deputy Chiefs of Staff, Senior Advisors (including John Gibbs and John Ligon), Policy Development & Research, General Counsel, White House Liaison, Community Planning and Development (including Sherri Boyd), Congressional and Intergovernmental Relations, and Public Affairs.

III. Format of Production

Please search for records regardless of format, including paper records, electronic records, audiotapes, videotapes, photographs, data, and graphical materials. This request includes, without limitation, all correspondence, letters, emails, text messages, calendar entries, facsimiles, telephone messages, voice mail messages, and transcripts, notes, minutes, or audio or video recordings of any meetings, telephone conversations, or discussions. In searching for responsive recordings, however, please exclude publicly available materials such as new clips that mention otherwise responsive search terms.

FOIA requires agencies to disclose information, with only limited exceptions for information that would harm an interest protected by specific exception or where disclosure is prohibited by law. 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(8)(A). In the event that any of the requested documents cannot be disclosed in their entirety, we request that you release any material that can reasonably be segregated. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(8)(A)(ii)(II), (b). Should any documents or portions of documents be withheld, we further request that you state with specificity the description of the document to be withheld and the legal and factual grounds for withholding any documents or portions thereof in an index, as required by Vaughn v. Rosen, 484 F.2d 820 (D.C. Cir. 1973). Should any document include both disclosable and non-disclosable material that cannot reasonably be segregated, we request that you describe what portions of the information in a document are non-disclosable and how that information is dispersed throughout the document. Mead Data Cent., Inc. v. U.S. Dep't of Air Force, 566 F.2d 242, 261 (D.C. Cir. 1977).

If requested records are located in, or originated in, another agency, department, office, installation or bureau, please refer this request or any relevant portion of this request to the appropriate entity.

To the extent that the records are readily reproducible in an electronic format, we would prefer to receive the records in that format. However, if certain records are not available in that format, we are willing to accept the best available copy of each such record.

III. Request for Fee Waiver

Democracy Forward Foundation requests a waiver of all fees associated with processing records for this request. FOIA requires documents to be furnished to requesters at no fee or reduced fees when “if disclosure of the information is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the government and is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester.” 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II); see generally 24 C.F.R § 15.106(k).

The disclosure of records sought by this Request meets this standard.

As described above, information regarding the late and unexplained cancellation of the NOFA will contribute to the public’s understanding of the Administration’s approach to providing assistance to victims of human trafficking and the Administration’s overall approach to administering funding opportunities.

Democracy Forward Foundation is able to, and regularly does, disseminate Records obtained through FOIA requests to a broad audience of persons interested in the subject matter.

In determining whether a fee waiver is appropriate, courts consider whether a requester has a “demonstrated . . . ability to disseminate the requested information,” Cause of Action v. F.T.C., 799 F.3d 1108, 1116-17 (D.C. Cir. 2015), and whether the requester regularly disseminates records obtained through FOIA to “a reasonably broad audience of persons interested in the subject” of its work. Carney v. U.S. Dep’t of Justice, 19 F.3d 807, 814-15 (2d Cir. 1994). FOIA does not require a requester to describe exactly how it intends to disseminate the information requested, as that would require “pointless specificity”; all that is necessary is for a requester to adequately demonstrate its “ability to publicize disclosed information.” Judicial Watch, Inc. v. Rossotti, 326 F.3d 1309, 1314 (D.C. Cir. 2003). In evaluating a fee waiver request, courts consider how a requester actually communicates information collected through FOIA to the public, including press releases or a website where documents received are made available, see id., or whether the requester has a history of “contacts with any major news[] companies” that suggest an ability to disseminate materials of interest through the press. Larson v. C.I.A., 843 F.2d 1481, 1483 (D.C. Cir. 1988) (upholding a denial of a fee waiver to a requester who had failed to identify his relationships with newspaper companies that could disseminate documents). DFF has a demonstrated ability to disseminate information of public interest requested through FOIA, and intends to publicize records DFF receives that contribute significantly to the public’s understanding of immigration policy and Administration priorities at HUD.

DFF operates a dedicated communications staff with deep relations with a wide variety of national publications. When DFF obtains materials through FOIA requests that are of significant public interest, DFF’s communications staff regularly works to ensure that these materials and their contents are featured in press articles educating the public about the operation of government; many articles feature additional commentary and analysis from DFF staff about those materials and their relevance to policy issues of public interest.¹

Additionally, DFF regularly sends press releases and other materials to over 6,000 members of the press and the over 7,000 members on our organization's email list, discussing ongoing legal developments related to executive branch policymaking. These materials often include descriptions and analysis of information obtained by DFF through its FOIA requests.² In addition, DFF operates a verified Twitter account with over 6,000 followers, and frequently uses the account to circulate significant documents received through FOIA requests.³

DFF's website also houses a great deal of information obtained through its FOIA requests, accessible to the public at no cost. DFF's website logged over 187,000 pageviews in 2018 alone.

Finally, DFF frequently incorporates documents received through FOIA into related legal actions brought by DFF on behalf of its clients, and in doing so further publicizes documents received by explaining their legal significance.⁴

Democracy Forward Foundation is a purely noncommercial requester.

DFF is not filing this Request to further its commercial interest, and any information disclosed by DFF as a result of this FOIA request will be disclosed at no cost. A fee waiver would fulfill Congress's legislative intent in amending FOIA. See Judicial Watch, 326 F.3d at 1312 ("Congress amended FOIA to ensure that it be liberally construed in favor of waivers for noncommercial requesters." (quotation marks omitted)).

Democracy Forward is a representative of the news media

A representative of the news media is one that "publishes or otherwise disseminates information to the public," and in particular one that "gathers information from a variety of sources; exercises a significant degree of editorial discretion in deciding what documents to use and how to organize them; devises indices and finding aids; and distributes the resulting work to the public." Nat'l Sec. Archive v. US Dep't of Defense, 880 F.2d 1381, 1387 (D.C. Cir. 1989).

Representatives of the news media qualify for a waiver of all fees except "reasonable standard charges for document duplication" as a representative of the news media pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II).

As documented above, DFF extensively disseminates information gathered through FOIA requests to the public, via sharing that information with other news outlets, publishing and sending press releases and other updates to our website and email list, and alerting our followers on social media to new developments in our work, including highlights from documents obtained through FOIA. This process entails a great degree of editorial discretion in deciding which documents to highlight and how to organize them for the public, as our team of lawyers and policy experts carefully examine and build a thorough understanding of the documents we receive from FOIA and their relationship to policies of interest to the public.

Beyond disseminating information to reporters for them to publish, and sharing press releases and updates, Democracy Forward has also sought to disseminate information directly to the public through reports and opinion pieces written by our staff.⁵

For all the foregoing reasons, Democracy Forward Foundation qualifies for a fee waiver.

If the request for a waiver is denied, we are willing to pay all reasonable fees incurred for searching and duplicating records in responding to this request, up to $100. If the costs of responding to this request should exceed that amount, please contact us before incurring costs exceeding that amount.

IV. Conclusion

We appreciate your assistance and look forward to your prompt response.
